

DFG Publication Fund 23/25

Application for reimbursement of costs for an Open Access publication (APC)

The publication fund covers the costs of publications in purely open access journals (except MDPI) if:

- they are eligible for LOM according to MHH regulations
- third-party funds made available for research have been exhausted

The following must be attached to the application:

- the article and peer review reports (for the publication types Review and Letter)
- the original invoice

Library notes

Process number:

Granted: Yes No

IF: Yes No

DOAJ: Yes No

Title, journal, publisher
Publication type	Original publication	Review	Research Letter	Miscellaneous
Name of the submitting or corresponding author
ORCID-Number
OE
Publication funding from other sources is available, e.g., third-party funding (please check)	Yes	No

Please ensure that you correctly name the MHH (Hannover Medical School or Hannover Medical School) and use your MHH email address on your publication (see affiliation and publication policy).

I hereby confirm that I have used any waivers and vouchers with priority. If this application is not approved, I agree to pay the APC using other (university) funds. I have read the MHH data privacy policy and agree to it. I agree that this publication may be republished on the MHH publication server, provided the publisher's license permits this.

Hannover.

.....Signature

Please send the documents

- e-mail: bibliothek.publikationsberatung@mh-hannover.de
- by Interoffice Mail: Bibliothek OE 8900, Publikationskosten